

TE&IP Ch 15 QAE

3. By 1400, the Indian Ocean trade had
- a. Received a major boost due to the demand for goods in Muslim cities in the Middle East
 - b. Dwindled to a fraction of the trade moved overland through China
 - c. Been completely taken over by the Swahili Coast states
 - d. Reached parity with the overland routes through China and the Middle East

4. Chinese sea trade reached its peak during the

- a. Warring States Period
- b. Ming dynasty
- c. Yuan dynasty
- d. Song dynasty

5. Chinese ships reached as far as Africa under the command of

- a. Wu Di
- b. Shih Huangdi
- c. Pe Chen
- d. Zheng He

6. In the early Middle Ages, the greatest of the Atlantic mariners were the

- a. Portuguese
- b. Vikings
- c. English
- d. French

7. Viking settlements in the Atlantic region included Iceland, Greenland, and

- a. New York
- b. Rhode Island
- c. Newfoundland
- d. Bermuda

8. By the year 1000, the Arawak had settled
- a. The Lesser Antilles and Cuba
 - b. The Greater Antilles and the Bahamas
 - c. The northern coast of Venezuela and the Lesser Antilles
 - d. The Lesser Antilles and Brazil

9. Portuguese and Spanish success in exploring the Atlantic Ocean and colonizing in the New World

- a. Led to immediate and prolonged warfare among the European nations
- b. Encouraged the Italian states to begin to explore the Atlantic Ocean
- c. Encouraged the Muslim states to begin to explore the Atlantic Ocean
- d. Made Portugal and Spain the wealthiest nations in Europe in the 1500s

11. In an effort to head off conflict, the pope divided the world between Spain and Portugal in

- a. The Great Schism
- b. The Treaty of Tordesillas
- c. A papal bull
- d. A treatise of nonintervention

13. In the Indian Ocean during the 1500s, Portugal was able to control

- a. All Indian Ocean trade
- b. Eats Africa and the southern coast of Arabia
- c. All trade was India
- d. The spice trade

14. Despite the fact that disease greatly helped Cortes in conquering the Aztecs

- a. The Aztecs nearly defeated him in battle
- b. He also had reinforcement from other Amerindians hostile to the Aztecs
- c. He was reinforced by Balboa and Pizarro
- d. He used siege warfare and starved the Aztecs into surrender